

TRANSFERRING TO DEAKIN UNIVERSITY

ARE YOU AN INTERNATIONAL STUDENT FINISHING YOUR STUDIES AT DEAKIN COLLEGE?

Congratulations!

You are just a few steps away from transferring to and enrolling at Deakin University.

This brochure will provide you with important information about how to successfully transfer to Deakin University. It will also give you step-by-step instructions to help ensure that you have prepared everything you need.

If you have any questions about the instructions in this brochure or about transferring to Deakin University, please get in touch with a Student Adviser or Deakin International Admissions, using the contact information inside. They will happily answer your questions and help you with the transfer process.

SCHOLARSHIPS

There is an array of scholarships available to international students through Deakin University, and external organisations including the Australian Government.

There are the newly-introduced Deakin Vice-Chancellor's International Scholarship and the Deakin International Scholarship that recognise high-achieving students.

The Australia Awards are prestigious scholarships funded by the Australian Government to support high-achieving students from the Asia-Pacific region.

For a full list of scholarships and how to apply, please visit deakin.edu.au/int-scholarships.

HOW TO ENROL

Step 1: Meet the entry requirements

Visit deakincollege.edu.au/transfers to check the entry requirements for your course at Deakin University. If your Deakin College course results meet or exceed the Deakin University entry requirements, you will be guaranteed direct entry into the appropriate Deakin University degree program.

To learn about the release dates for your final results, please see: deakincollege.edu.au/important-dates.

Step 2: Receive your Confirmation of Transfer Letter

Deakin University International Admissions will send you an email with a Confirmation of Transfer Letter. You should receive your Letter within two weeks of your final results being released.*

Step 3: Accept your place at Deakin University

Your Confirmation of Transfer Letter will contain a section called 'To Accept This Offer'. Follow the instructions in this section to accept your place at Deakin University. Your acceptance must be complete before the start of Orientation and Enrolment Week for international students.

Step 4: Enrol

You will enrol in your Deakin course during Orientation and Enrolment Week. Dates for Orientation and Enrolment Week are available here: deakin.edu.au/study-at-deakin/important-dates. Download your personal Orientation and Enrolment Program details at deakin.edu.au/get-started.

Step 5: Pay fees

After your enrolment is finalised, your fee invoice will be available online through Deakin's Student Connect system. Make sure you pay the fees by the due date on the invoice, or your enrolment may be cancelled. If your enrolment is cancelled, it may have a serious impact on your student visa compliance status.

* Per Step 1 above, your final results from Deakin College must meet the entry requirements for Deakin University for you to receive a Confirmation of Transfer Letter. See deakincollege.edu.au/transfers for more information about entry requirements.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

I'd like to change my course at Deakin University. How can I do this?

- Go to Deakin College Reception and make an appointment to talk with a Student Adviser about any changes to entry requirements and credit transfer into your preferred course.
- Fill out and submit the Deakin College to Deakin University Amendment Form (included in this document below).

I have received my final results, and met the entry requirements, but I have not received my Confirmation of Transfer Letter from Deakin University. What do I do?

- Deakin University International Admissions will email your Confirmation of Transfer Letter within two weeks of the release of your Deakin College final results. Keep checking your email until two weeks have passed – the Letter will likely arrive soon. Release dates for your final results are here: deakincollege.edu.au/important-dates.
- To contact you and to send your Confirmation of Transfer Letter, Deakin University will use the email address that you provided to Deakin College. If your email has changed, fill out and submit the Deakin College to Deakin University Amendment Form (included in this document below).
- Check your email settings and junk mail folders to see if the Confirmation of Transfer Letter accidentally ended up there.
- If you still haven't received your Confirmation of Transfer Letter, contact Deakin University International Admissions directly: deakin-int-onshore@deakin.edu.au

I want to discuss my major/find out what subjects I will be studying at Deakin University next trimester. What should I do?

- Deakin University faculty course advisers will visit Deakin College during this current trimester to discuss your course structure and subject selection. Look for advertised Faculty Information Sessions at Deakin College, or ask for details at Deakin College Reception.
- Attend the Orientation and Enrolment Week for international students! Deakin University faculty course advisers will meet with you to provide advice and enrolment assistance. Dates for Orientation and Enrolment Week for international students are available here: deakin.edu.au/study-at-deakin/important-dates.

I won't be able to attend the Orientation and Enrolment Week for international students. What should I do?

Orientation and Enrolment Week for international students is a critical part of your induction into Deakin University. Please arrange your schedule to ensure you can attend. Dates for International Students' Orientation and Enrolment Week are here: deakin.edu.au/study-at-deakin/important-dates.

If you cannot attend Orientation and Enrolment Week for international students due to compelling circumstances outside of your control, please contact Deakin University to seek approval for a later arrival date. Contact details can be found at the bottom on this page.

I want to defer (delay) my commencement at Deakin University to a later intake than the one stated on my Confirmation of Enrolment (COE). What should I do?

- As you are on a package course visa, deferment may affect your student visa.
- Approval for deferring your studies can only be granted due to compelling or compassionate circumstances that are beyond your control. Examples of compassionate or compelling circumstances could be:
  - > Serious illness or injury, where a medical certificate states that you are unable to attend classes
  - > Bereavement of close family members such as parents or grandparents (if possible, a death certificate should be provided)
  - > Major political upheaval or natural disaster in your home country requiring emergency travel and impacting on your ability to study
  - > A traumatic experience that impacts your ability to study, e.g. involvement in, or witnessing of, a serious accident; or witnessing or being the victim of a serious crime (where possible, a psychologist's report should be provided).
- DIBP may cancel a student visa if they believe the grounds for deferral are not genuine.
- To seek approval for deferral from Deakin University, please contact Deakin International Admissions and provide the compelling or compassionate circumstances affecting you: deakin-int-onshore@deakin.edu.au.
